NO ADVANCE AT VERA CRUZ

But Definite Course of Action Outlined in Case of Resumption of Hostilities.

Washington, May 5 .- Developments in the Mexican situation to-day were divided between the diplomatic and the military status.

The South American mediators con-tinued their sessions throughout the day, and for the first time it became authoritively known from them that they considered the whole range of Mexican affairs as properly embraced in their work. Their reply to Carranza had made this clear, and while exempting him from the mediation for the time being, it still left the door open for him to come into the proceedings later.

At the War Department it became clear that no advance at Vera Cruz was intended unless to repel attack, but it was known that a definite course of action had been outlined in the of action had been outlined in the event of a resumption of hostilities at Vera Cruz, and the extension of the campaign toward Mexico City. In that event, Major-General Leonard Wood will be in supreme command with General Funston directing the advance beyond Vera Cruz, and General Charles B. Bailey, of the artillery, assuming command of the base at Vera Cruz. This arrangement is wholly in the line of preparedness and signifies no present purpose of being put into operation.

Congress, after a considerable period of silence on Mexico, again came into the situation. In the Senate, Senator Lippitt, of Rhodo Island, introduced a Lippitt, of Rhodo Island, introduced a resolution calling on President Wilson for information as to published reports that it was the administration's purpose to aid General Villa to secure the presidency. During a brief but spirited discussion Senator Lodge read from a London paper, a scathing denunciation of Villa. The resolution went over until to-morrow. until to-morrow.
